President's Corner

As we began our 77th Season, there were some squabbles at the theater. As the actors were 'squabbling' on stage, in the wonderfully successful production of Squabbles, while the theater was filled with laughter and the also-present "aw" during the tender moments. Director Steve Lemenille and Producer Kay Macrae, the cast and a hard working production staff deserve a huge round of applause. We were pleased to deliver an encore production to make up for the snow-closing.

Currently in rehearsal is Rehearsal for Murder...a murder mystery you don't want to miss.

Speaking of which, If you're already a member, this might be a good time to take a membership for a family member or friend. You'll still have a savings of $10.00 for the remainder of the season. Remember, it's the gift that keeps on giving.

If you're looking for a way to introduce your children or grandchildren to live theater, mark your calendar for December 10th and make reservations for The Three Prince Charmings (see the article on the reverse side).

For the past few months we've been working hard on several improvements at the theater...the lighting booth stairs and addition, the bathrooms renovations and some landscaping improvements. We thank all those who helped.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, have a Happy, Safe and Enjoyable Holiday Season. We look forward to seeing you at the Playhouse in 2012.

JoAnne Lemenille
President

Ward Mansion Presentation

On November 3rd, Lucille Bills, Director of Audience Services and Development, addressed the residents of the Savannah at the James Ward Mansion about WCP and the theater's first children's show, The Three Prince Charmings. Also present were WCP Board members, Gail Smith and Don Mokrauer. The event was hosted by Josie Ward and Eileen-Ward Conway, sponsors of the children's show.

Thank You

We are proud to announce that for our 2011-2012 season, WCP has received grants from the Union County Office of Cultural and Heritage Affairs, The Westfield Foundation, The Rotary Club of Westfield, and the Westfield Service League. In addition, we are recipients of matching grants from Chubb and Sons, Merck, and Exxon Mobil. Our generous audience members continue to support us with donations, the most recent from George M. Harbt of Westfield.

Children's Show

The Westfield Community Players is pleased to announce a children's show as a new addition to this season's schedule. The Three Prince Charmings, a comedy with foolish dueling princes, witches, Cinderella, Rapunzel and other fairy tale characters is sure to delight audiences from ages five to 95.

Two performances will be held on Saturday, December 10, at 11:00 am and 2:00 pm at the theater, 1000 North Avenue in Westfield. Tickets for this fund-raiser are $10.00 each and can be reserved by calling the box office at 908-232-1221. Start off the holiday season by making your reservations now.

The Three Prince Charmings is generously sponsored by Eileen Ward-Conway, broker of Elegant Homes Realty featuring the Savannah in downtown Westfield, the James Ward Mansion, and Ward and O'Donnell Property Management Company.

Acting as the producer of the show is Lucille Bills.

To volunteer as a House Manager, please call Lucille Bills at (908)822-7221.

We are grateful for your help.
