President's Corner

This is a special year for WCP...our 80th! And we're still going strong.

This year's line-up of shows is, undoubtedly, a fun-filled season. Hopefully you will have received our subscription mailing by now and have renewed your subscription. If not, it's not too late to do so. You might even wish to consider giving a subscription to a family member or friend as a gift. Also, it's not too early to think of the upcoming holidays. Our prices surely beat Broadway by a city mile!

If you've not received the subscription mailing, you can download the form from our website at <http://www.westfieldcommunityplayers.org/WCPsubscriptionsform.html>

As a side note, Maren Sugarman, director of Private Lives represents the third generation in her family with ties to WCP. Our former President Gerry Purdy was her grandmother and her mother, Marnie Burke, worked many jobs both back stage and on stage. To top it off, she's the niece of our own Drude Rosseler; and, she got her earliest experience with theater right here at WCP. We welcome Maren back!

See you at the theater.
